PH seeks neighbors' support on Panatag

By Jerry E. Esplanada

THE PHILIPPINES has asked the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (Asean) to take a stand on its dispute with China over territorial claims to Scarborough Shoal (Panatag Shoal) and on other Chinese incursions in the West Philippine Sea (South China Sea).

"All, not just the Philippines, will ultimately be negatively affected if we do not take a stand," Foreign Secretary Albert del Rosario said yesterday in a text message to the Inquirer.

"Since the freedom of navigation and unimpeded commerce in the West Philippine Sea are of great import to many nations, all should consider what China is endeavoring to do in the Scarborough Shoal in order to pursue its so-called full sovereign rights over the entire West Philippine Sea on the basis of [its] nine-dash line claim, using a historical record that's clearly baseless," Del Rosario said.

The nine-dash claim is China's delineation of its territory in the South China Sea, with nine dashes on the map that enclose all of the Spratly archipelago, parts of which are claimed by the Philippines, Brunei, Malaysia, Vietnam and Taiwan.

Ping on Erap: I owe him what I am now

By Sen. Panfilo "Ping" Lacson

(Editor's Note: The following is from the book, "Ito ang Pilipino," a compilation of tributes to former President Joseph Ejercito Estrada on his 75th birthday on April 19. It must be noted that the author and Estrada had a major rift in 2008. Since then the two men, once tight allies, have not spoken to each other.)

WHILE ERAP (Joseph Estrada) was Vice President, he was assigned by then President Fidel V. Ramos (FVR) to head the newly formed Presidential Anti-Crime Commission (PACC). The objective of the PACC was to suppress the surge of criminality particularly kidnap-for-ransom cases which at that time (1992) had become some kind of a cottage industry, courtesy of a group of former local insurgents known as the Red Scorpion Group. The group was led by its notorious ringleader, Alfredo "Joey" de Leon. It was indeed a very difficult challenge, if not an almost impossible mission.

Many people thought the PACC was offered to him by FVR with a hidden malevolent agen-

GMA birthday potluck turns into feast for poor

By Julie M. Aurelio

WHAT began as a postbirthday potluck for former President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo yesterday became an extended party with poor families who lost their homes in a fire on Agham Road in Quezon City on Friday.

Arroyo's well-wishers who visited her at Veterans Memorial Medical Center (VMMC) shared the food they brought for the celebration with the fire victims.

Candaba Mayor Jerry Pelayo said the former President instructed her spokesperson, Elena Bautista-Horn, to ask her Pampanga allies to give some of the food for her birthday celebration to the fire victims.

"She heard about the [Agham] residents' plight and told us last Friday night to share [with them] what we

THE ESCAPE routes have been mapped out. Fiberglass rescue boats, fabricated by the residents themselves, are on standby and so are life vests and emergency kits. When the sirens go off, trained rescuers are ready to push out and pluck anyone out of rising floodwaters.

Residents of Barangay Banaba—a village of San Mateo, Rizal, that was swamped by floodwaters at the height of the highly destructive storm "Ondoy" in 2009—have been quietly preparing for another "great flood" by adopting a community-based disaster risk reduction (DRR) program.

19 UP grads get highest honor

NINETEEN students of the University of the Philippines in Diliman, Quezon City, will receive the highest academic honor of summa cum laude in today's 101st general commencement exercises to be held at 5 p.m. at the UP Amphitheater.

Adriano Ronan Pascual, a Psychology student, scored the highest weighted average grade (WAG) of 1.053, according to the UP Diliman website.

The summa cum laude distinction is awarded to students who earn a WAG of 1.20 or higher. The perfect grade is 1.

According to the university information office, 222 graduates will be conferred magna cum laude honors, while 462 will be named cum laude.

Students who garner a WAG of from 1.202 to 1.45 earn magna cum laude honors while those with a WAG of from 1.451 to 1.75 are conferred the cum laude distinction.

Of the 3,998 candidates for graduation, 3,281 will receive their undergraduate degrees, 556 their master's degrees and 61 their doctoral degrees.

Oscar Lopez, chairman of Lopez Holdings Corp. and First Philippine Holdings Corp., will address the graduating class.

Lopez will be conferred an honorary Doctor of Laws degree for his "God-guided service to humanity and … through his lifelong passion for biodiversity," the UP website said.

Charlene Jean Garcia, a summa cum laude from the College of Business Administration and Accountancy, will deliver the valedictory speech on behalf of the graduating students. Rima Granali

Manila seawall rebuilt at ₱94M

By Philip C. Tubeza

FINALLY, the seawall along Roxas Boulevard can once again offer an excellent spot for viewing Manila Bay's famous sunset.

An official of the Department of Public Works and Highways said the five-month repair of the 1.4-km seawall is expected to be finished this week, after it was damaged by Typhoon "Pedring" in September last year.

The repairs had to be rushed in the past few weeks in time for the upcoming annual meeting of the Asian Development Bank at the Philippine International Convention Center, according to Reynaldo Tagudando, director of the DPWH-National Capital Region.

The seawall was rebuilt at the cost of P94 million, which far exceeded the initial estimated cost of P41 million, Tagudando said.

He said the increase was largely due to the additional work that made the seawall "bigger and stronger. The (new) structure was designed to hold back the waves." Boulders or "armor rocks," for example, were brought in from Rizal, Bataan, Cavite, and Quezon provinces to make the new seawall more stable, he said.

On Monday, the DPWH will turn over the site to the Manila city government for the final touches, such as landscaping and lighting installations, he added.

Summer Gaming with Alcatel Glory 918N from Sun's Best Value Plans!

Back when Pac-Man was still a hit, denizens of gamers would have to go to the nearest arcade center with 50 kilograms of coins in their pockets and wait in line for their daily fix of pellet-eating entertainment. Fast-forward to 2012, and we have the Alcatel Glory 918N, enabling you to get your gaming fix wherever you are, all in a sweet package.

Currently the fastest growing of the World's top 10 Mobile Phone Manufacturers, Alcatel introduces the Alcatel Glory 918N. This great handset is packed with dual-SIM capabilities, a 3 megapixel camera, and is Wi-Fi and 3g enabled. What's more is the Alcatel Glory 918N has an Android 2.3 Gingerbread operating system - allowing you to download from Android Market's immense selection of games! With casual games like Angry Birds Space and Fruit Ninja, to hardcore, time-consuming ones like Dark Legends, you can be sure that your daily commute or lull summer days will never be boring again.

The Alcatel Glory boasts a 3.2 inch, 320x480 resolution touchscreen - enough to experience all the nitty-gritty of your favorite Android game. The phone's backside is also equipped with rubber surface, ensuring that your grip will stay firm even during the most intense gaming sessions. Just beware of those games that make you want to throw your phone to the wall, though - wall repairs are pretty expensive.

This summer, enjoy playing games on your own Alcatel Glory 918N when you avail of Sun Cellular's Plan 350 - for a P500 initial cash-out, and for ONLY P350 per month, you get unlimited Sun calls and texts, plus 250 texts to other networks! The Alcatel Glory 918N is also available with Sun Cellular's Plan 450 with absolutely zero cash out and comes with unlimited Sun calls and texts, 250 texts to other networks AND an extra P100 value which may be used for 20 hours of mobile internet, IDD calls and SMS with special rates or other services.

Arma Christi Relics to visit Bulacan; Manaoag fiesta on April 25

MAY 1 will be a special day for the people of Bulacan when the Arma Christi Relics are brought to the Bisita ng Mahal na Señor in Barrio Lumampa, Taro, Bocaue, for veneration, 8 a.m.-6 p.m.

May 1 is the feast of the Wished as Señor. (Call the Living Rosary members Cora de Guzman at 0908-2811183.)

The visit is a project of the Universal Living Rosary of St. Philomena.

"Arma Christi" means "Weapons of Christ." In May 2011, a male devotee of St. Philomena and a member of the Universal Living Rosary was miraculously cured of a serious ailment after making a novena to St. Philomena.

In gratitude, the patient went to the Sanctuary of Saint Philomena in Mugnano del Cardinale in Italy to thank the saint for his miraculous cure.

In Rome, he visited several churches, including one where the Arma Christi Relics (Relics of the Birth, Passion and Death of Our Lord Jesus Christ) were kept for public veneration. It was under the custody of a religious congregation of nuns.

Observing that the relics were not given much attention by the faithful, he thought of asking the Sisters if he could bring the relics to the Philippines where they would be better venerated. "No way," the nuns said.

Not losing hope, he prayed to St. Philomena for her intercession. Through much prayers and negotiations with the Sisters, he received an e-mail on Jan. 10, birthday of St. Philomena, informing him that the Council had approved his request.

The Holy Relics were brought to the Philippines by a sister of the Congregation last Feb 6. The custodians are two members of the Living Rosary of St. Philomena of the Apostolate of the Work of the Saints under the guidance of Fr. Dennis Paez, SSS.

To request for public veneration of the Sacred Relics in parish churches, please e-mail the Apostolate at thewerkofthesaints@gmail.com.

Pastoral Liturgical Renewal

Rev. Fr. Bobby R. Tumon, parish priest of St. Anthony de Padua Church in Singalong, launched the "Pastoral Liturgical Renewal" last August to encourage lay spirituality.

This project was handled by the Education Ministry of the Parish Pastoral Council. The talks have been held every last Saturday of the month.

On April 28, Msgr. Sabino Vengco, Jr. will talk about "Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary." On May 26, Fr. Jaime Tiamzon will tackle "Ministries in the Church."

Program starts at 7 p.m., according to Nancy Zabala of the education ministry committee. The talks are covered by TV Maria.

Manaoag fiesta

The shrine of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary of Manaoag marks two fiestas: the third Wednesday after Easter Sunday and Dec. 7, Feast of the Holy Rosary.

Devotees will drive to Manaoag on April 25, and attend the family Masses starting at 5 a.m., light candles and attend the afternoon procession.

Balloon designer Aurea Alonzo designed the Virgin Mary's fiesta vestment that was donated by Alfonso and Angelita Paz of Bagtuk. We Bolaneos call the Virgin Mary "Apo Baket."

'Spirit of May Radio' concert

The new board of trustees of the College of the Holy Spirit Alumni Foundation with Gaby Tiu Peñaroy (HS '64) as president is holding a dinner-dance to gather schoolmates in a spirit of fellowship to involve them in a fundraising scheme to support the school's centennial in 2013. "Spirit of May Radio" will be held on May 5, 6 p.m., at the North Greenhills Clubhouse on Atlantic Street.

"Spirit of May Radio" will include dinner, raffle prizes and the dance party to the music of the 6Pack band which specializes in retro music. Tickets are selling at P2,500. (Call Cora Pagsa at the CHSAF alumni office at 7356816, e-mail at chsafsecretariat13@yahoo.com, or contact your class representatives.)

COLLEGE Of the Holy Spirit Alumni Foundation board members prepare for the "Spirit of May Radio" dinner and dance party on May 5, 6 p.m., at North Greenhills Clubhouse.

Quota in Cebu

Thirty-five years in the Philippines, Quota International, with the Manila club as the pioneer, has been making a difference in the lives of people through service and friendship.

There are now 19 Quota Clubs in the Philippines, comprising Quota International's District 41. Quota clubs in the 14 countries where Quota serves are very focused on their service objectives "for disadvantaged women and children, and for the hearing-impaired."

Led by district governor Emilie Hinson and her team, with Quota International of Metro Cebu as host, Quota's 36th District Conference will be held April 26-28 at Marco Polo Plaza Hotel, Cebu City and will be graced by International president Cleis Tracey-Heim and Philippines Pritchard.

PARENTS BROUGHT along their children, and even their dogs, for an enjoyable weekend bonding at the Good Housekeeping Family Fun Run 2012 held on March 31, at Bonifacio Global City, Taguig.

Good Housekeeping editor in chief Cloba Anglaton says, "Since the first Family Fun Run was so successful, we decided to do it again!"

It was work and play under the sun as kiddie runners enjoyed the 100-meter dash, while pet dogs ran with their owners in the 1K human-and-dog category. Moms and dads had an exciting run with their kids in the 3K run. Parents and children enjoyed helping each other cross obstacles. An open 5K category was also participated in by both kids and adults.

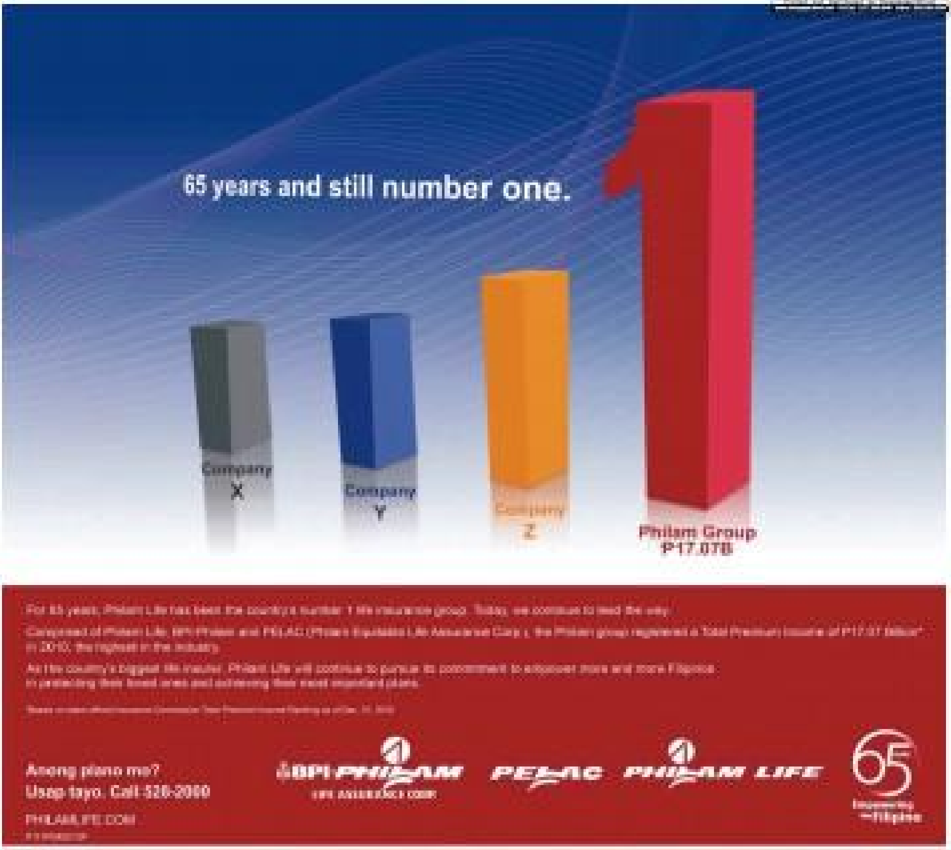

Seen in the 5K category were Biggest Loser Philippines reality contestants, Angelo Lopingco, Ivy Mendoza and Francisco "Tiboy" Ruariza.

Dog lovers were also in for a treat as Good Dog magazine invited experts to talk about raising their four-legged family member. Dogs were treated with a day of pampering as Good Housekeeping Family Fun Run 2012 offered grooming booths as well as clothing booths for both owners and their best friends to enjoy.

Hosted by RX 93.1 deejays Chico Garcia and Delamar Arias, the Good Housekeeping Family Fun Run 2012 was co-presented by Sangobion and Cusoil.

The April issue of Good Housekeeping featuring Lucy Torres on the cover, and Good Dog is available in newsstands, bookstores and supermarkets nationwide for only P120. You can read Good Housekeeping straight from your tablets by downloading the e-magazine at www.summitmedia.com.ph/emagazine.

No kidding: Children rate TV shows they like

By Marinel R. Cruz

A SHOW like "Wil Time Bigtime" appeals to kids because it gives money to the poor.

"Children said they liked the idea of helping the less fortunate," said Frank G. Rivera, executive director of the National Council for Children's Television or NCCT, which hosted the "Bata Ako, May Tinig Ako" forum held recently at the Department of Education complex in Pasig City.

The event was attended by 30 children ages 8 to 16 and aimed to "fresh out important thoughts of kids about the media," Rivera told Inquirer Entertainment.

During the forum, the children were given placards bearing the thumbs-up sign for "like" and the thumbs-down sign for "dislike."

They were asked to rate TV programs by raising their like or dislike placards.

Favored were "Tropang Potchi," an educational program on GMA 7; "Budoy," a drama series about a mentally challenged boy on ABS-CBN; "Junior MasterChef" and "Spoon," both cooking shows on ABS-CBN and Net 25, respectively; "Hi Friend," a news program on ABS-CBN,

CHILD psychologist and NCCT council member Dr. Ma. Lourdes Carandang facilitates the open forum.

ACTRESS and mother Mikee Cojuangco shares her thoughts on kids' viewing habits.

Greyson Chance tonight . . .

Back-to-back Vertical Horizon, Ed Kowalczyk

Greyson Chance tonight; Sergio Mendes Tuesday

GREYSON Chance, the 14-year-old American pop singer songwriter and YouTube sensation who has just released his debut album, performs tonight at the Smart Araneta Coliseum. Special guest is 12-year-old singer-actress [illegible]. The Big Dome has been transformed into an intimate, limited-seats venue for this show.

Sergio Mendes & Brazil 2012

Brazilian pianist-composer-bandleader Sergio Mendes returns after six years for a one-night concert with his current group Brasil 2012 on April 24 at the Smart Araneta Coliseum.

Moving to the United States in 1964, Mendes formed Brasil 65 and recorded for Capitol Records, but it was as Brasil 66 that his band achieved success, after the release on A&M Records of its self-titled debut album, which featured a mix of light jazz, a bossa nova beat and contemporary soft pop melodies.

Some of his well-known hits include "Mas Que Nada," "The Look of Love," "The Fool on the Hill," "Scarborough Fair," "Pretty World," "Never Gonna Let You Go," "The Trouble With Hello Is Goodbye," "What Do We Mean To Each Other," "Don't You Worry 'Bout A Thing," "If I Ever Lose This Heaven," "Put A Little Love Away," "Waiting For Love" and "Waters Of March."

Avenged Sevenfold

Heavy metal band Avenged Sevenfold performs on April 26 at the Smart Araneta Coliseum.

Formed in 1999, the group consists of M. Shadows (vocals), Synyster Gates (lead guitar), Zacky Vengeance (rhythm guitar), and Johnny Christ (bass). James "The Rev" Sullivan, the band's drummer, died in 2009. Mike Portnoy formerly of Dream Theater temporarily sat in, until it was announced that Filipino-American Arin Ilejay took over.

Avenged Sevenfold has sold more than four million albums worldwide.

KBP Music Festival

Eleven Filipino songwriters and their respective compositions will vie for the grand prize at the 1st KBP Pop Music Festival awards night on April 27, 7 p.m., at the Star Theater, Star City complex, Pasay City. The 11 songs have already won in their respective categories in the songwriting contest launched in 2011 by the Kapisanan ng mga Brodkaster ng Pilipinas (KBP) and the Filipino Composers Development Corporation.

The grand prize winner will receive P100,000 cash; the first runner-up, P75,000; and the second runner-up P50,000.
